Player, Parent, Coach Roles and Relationships

- Coaches Expectations
 - Help each STUDENT-athlete improve as men and basketball players
 - Classroom, court, off the court.
 - Organized each day in practice
 - Positive and provide constructive criticism
 - Encourage each player to want to do their best and find a way to help the team.
- Player Expectations
 - Humility, Servanthood, Appreciation, Unity, Passion
 - WE over me
 - Be on Time
 - Commitment to the team
 - Best Effort and Great Attitude each day!
 - Get better each day! Brick by Brick
 - Practice and team events are mandatory.
- Parent Expectations
 - Support your son, team, and school
 - Treat officials and coaches like you would want your son to.
 - Supportive of the basketball program and our philosophy.
 - Playing Time
 - 4000 + minutes of practice/ 800 minutes of game time
 - As parents see only 10% of what son is doing; other 90% occurs in practice.
 - Coaches coach, player's play, referees ref, parent's parent—we all have a job to do!
 - Open Practice-always welcome, encourage you to come and watch.
 - Communication:
 - Player to coach, Parent to head coach, parent to A.D.
 - Teaching young men to be responsible and to take charge of what is important. Important for them to set up a meeting or find a time to talk with coach if there are questions or concerns
 - I will not discuss other players on the team, coaching philosophy (offense, defense, etc), or playing time.
 - I will discuss what your son can do to improve.
- Travel
 - All varsity players will ride bus to and from games.
 - (Exceptions; Creekside away game, Holiday Tournament, Saturday games)
 - Celebrate together as a team and learn from mistakes as a team. Chance to build relationships
 - JV players will ride the bus to games and may ride home with their parents after game. Coach will need to know this the day before the game. Not on the day of. Parents can email coach to notify.
 - JV players will stay for all varsity HOME games. This is a basketball program and players need to understand the importance of supporting the players on varsity. JV will also have a responsibility after the game.
