

November 3, 2011

The World Language Club will meet Monday, November 7th, after school in room 870. We will finish watching "The Lion King" and discuss upcoming projects. Also, please remember to bring your checks for dues.

All students who have earned perfect attendance and/or honor roll status (A's and B's on the report card) will need to pick up their honor roll card and special perfect attendance coupon for a special treat on Friday, November 4 during all lunch periods. A table will be set up right outside of the cafeteria. Students will be required to present their school ID's. See Ms. Graham for further details. Congratulations to all of our students who have earned this status. Keep up the excellent work ethic.

On Thursday, November 17th, Bartram Trail will be participating in the ASVAB Career Exploration Program Test. The test will be open for any interested Junior or Senior. The ASVAB is an aptitude test utilized and ran by the United States military. Anyone interested in taking the test should sign up either with ROTC or with Dean Abbs. Enrollment will be open until Tuesday, November 15th. For more information regarding the test, please contact Dean Abbs.

Students log on to www.collegeboard to sign up for the SAT test on 11/5/11.

The Oracle (the magazine of BTHS) is busy at work on our next book that will be published on Amazon. For this book we are focusing on science fiction, fantasy, horror, and mystery themes. We are looking for the strange, the surreal, the fantastic. We are currently seeking submissions of art, graphic art, photography, poetry, short fiction, and creative nonfiction. Drop submissions off to Mrs. Mullen in room 865. Our current contest is for horror submissions – deadline is November 18th. Show off your talent and your creativity. Win prizes! Get published! For the next contest, (starting November 19th) we will be seeking fantasy submissions. Good luck!

Interact will meet today, Thursday, 11/3 at 3:45 in room 222. Bring left over Halloween candy.

The annual Thanksgiving food drive has started. Please bring your food donations to class, a club participating in the drive or to Mrs. Fixel's room, 222. The last day to bring in your food donations is Thursday, 11/17. The food will be picked up from Bartram on Friday, 11/18. Remember we are competing with the other schools in the county to win the greatest weight of food collected. The teacher collecting the most food will receive a turkey for Thanksgiving and his/her winning class will receive a cupcake party.

The senior superlative voting will be during lunches on Wednesday, November 9th outside of the main cafeteria. You must have your own pencil, and you must have a photo ID-no exceptions. All ballots must be returned during lunch. If you do not get your ballot at the beginning of each lunch, you may not have time to finish. Ballots will not be accepted after 4th period.

The Boys Golf Team finished 5th at The State Tournament. Congratulations to Logan Lanier, Kiernan Murphy, Devin Suri, Andrew Scalf and William Stewart. Ansley Bowman finished 11th at the Girls State Tournament.
