

Dear parent(s)/guardian(s),

If you have received this email, then your son/daughter participated in at least one College Board Advanced Placement (AP) Exam during the 2018-2019 school year. Scores will become available through your son/daughter's College Board account tomorrow, Saturday, July 7 at 8:00am. This email is to serve as a helpful tool to better understand your son/daughter's AP scores.

HOW TO ACCESS:

- Click the following link and follow the prompts to view your son/daughter's scores: www.apscore.org.
 - The following information is required to access scores:
 - Your son/daughter's College Board account username and password
 - If you have not already, go to www.collegeboard.org/register to create a College Board account and be sure to use the same information on the account as was provided on the answer sheet.
 - Your son/daughter's AP number (or school based student ID if they provided it on their AP answer sheet).
 - *Please note that the link above will not work until Saturday, July 7 at 8:00am

HOW MUCH COLLEGE CREDIT DID MY SON/DAUGHTER EARN BY PASSING THEIR AP EXAM(S)?

- Colleges/Universities accept credit for passing AP exams differently; please click on one of the following colleges/universities to see how they grant credit!
 - University of Florida
 - Florida State University
 - University of North Florida
 - University of Central Florida
 - University of South Florida
