

Florida Women's Law Group "Women to Watch" Scholarship

Entry Deadline: March 31, 2020

Florida Women's Law Group is proud to offer our "Women to Watch" scholarship in the amount of $1,500.00 to a young woman in Saint John's County who will be continuing to pursue their education after high school. This scholarship is available to young women for educational purposes only. Florida Women's Law Group is invested in educating and encouraging the next generation of women because we believe that women are strong, smart and with the right motivation, can accomplish anything. Our goal is to provide some monetary support for young women to pursue their dreams through college and beyond. We look forward to reviewing the essays and having an opportunity to meet with the applicants as well as the young lady who is awarded the scholarship.

Applicants must currently be in their senior year of high school in St. John's County, graduating this academic year and have maintained a grade point average of 3.8 or above, unweighted. To apply, please complete this form in entirety, complete the essay question and attach your current official high school transcript displaying your name to WTW@4womenlaw.com.

Name:

Email:

Phone Number:

Address:

High School Name:

Expected graduation date:

Current GPA:

College/University you plan to attend:

ESSAY Directions: Please answer the question below in 500 to 750 words.

If anything was possible, what would you be and why? What do you think can hold you back?