

SJRSC Dual Enrollment Frequently Asked Questions

What is dual enrollment?

*Students are earning high school credit and college credit at the same time, for free

paid for by SJCSD*

What types of dual enrollment can a student participate in?

Traditional dual enrollment and early admissions. The qualifications for both types of dual enrollment are the same. The deadline and process for submitting the dual enrollment packet to take courses at SJRSC are the same for both types of dual enrollment.

What is Early Admissions?

Early Admissions (college credit) an admission status, which is a form of dual enrollment, that allows a secondary student to enroll full-time (minimum of 12 credit hours) in courses that are creditable toward the high school diploma and the associate degree. The early admission program is limited to students who have completed a minimum of six semesters of full-time secondary enrollment and who meet all other admission criteria required of dual enrollment students. If students choose this option during senior year, they cannot take classes on the BTHS campus.

Is there a maximum number of courses students can take?

Traditional Dual Enrollment students may take a maximum of ten (10) Dual Enrollment credit hours in the fall term, ten (10) Dual Enrollment credit hours in the spring term, and six (6) to eight (8) Dual Enrollment credit hours (a maximum of 2 courses total) for the summer term. Early admission Dual Enrollment students must take a minimum of twelve (12) and a maximum of sixteen (16) Dual Enrollment credit hours each fall and spring term. If a student is participating in a BTHS dual enrollment course, this is counted in the total maximum.

What is FERPA?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that affords parents the right to have access to their children's education records, the right to seek to have the records amended, and the right to have some control over the disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records. When a student turns 18 years old, or enters a postsecondary institution at any age, the rights under FERPA transfer from the parents to the student ("eligible student"). The FERPA statute is found at 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and the FERPA regulations are found at 34 CFR Part 99.

Do parents have access to the student's dual enrollment course grades?

No. Students are expected to handle communicating with professors as they are considered a college student. No one at SJRSC, including students' professors (teachers), can communicate with parents per the FERPA law.

What if students have accommodations?

The student will need to work with the SJRSC Disabilities Services office to determine what accommodations, if any, can be used in college classes.

SJRSC Dual Enrollment Frequently Asked Questions

Are dual enrollment courses ‘watered down’ to fit the needs of high school students?

No. These courses are adult level courses and students should have not only the academic maturity, but the social/emotional maturity to handle adult content matter and academic responsibilities.

What’s the impact of dual enrollment?

Dual enrollment is the start of a college transcript. Dual enrollment grades will follow students forever, which can impact admittance to college/university, acceptance into the students major, and enrollment in graduate school. Doing poorly in dual enrollment courses may also negatively impact financial aid.

What are the homework/study time expectations of dual enrollment?

2-3 hours of homework for each hour spent in class

How will students know when off campus (at SJRSC) dual enrollment packets are available?

Students should pay attention to morning announcements, Schoology and the School Counseling Dual Enrollment website. There will be a packet for students returning to Dual Enrollment and packets for students who are new to Dual Enrollment.

How will students be informed of all dual enrollment deadlines?

This information is in their Dual Enrollment packet and more detailed deadlines are available in the student’s SJRSC portal.

Do students have to re-register for dual enrollment each term?

Yes, a complete and accurate Registration form must be submitted by the BTHS published deadline for every term the student would like to participate in dual enrollment. Students do not need to complete a new APPLICATION for the college each term. GPA requirement must be met each term. Students should pay attention to morning announcements, Schoology and the School Counseling Dual Enrollment website for deadlines each term.

Can the high school counselor help students plan for their AA degree?

High school counselors will advise students for high school graduation and how dual enrollment courses will impact high school graduation. High school counselors cannot advise on AA degree requirements or pre-requisites needed for intended majors. However, SJRSC advisors can help with that once a student is enrolled in their first dual enrollment course. High school counselors suggest students read the following links to make sure they understand what credits they need for an AA:

What should a high school student know if interested in taking dual enrollment courses at a SJRSC campus (St. Augustine, Orange Park, Palatka)?

When students are selecting college campus courses, please keep the following in mind:

1. Which SJR State Campus offers that specific section of the course?
2. What time of day/evening is the course?
3. The students BTHS schedule cannot be changed to accommodate SJRSC dual enrollment courses.
4. Will you have enough time to drive to/from your high school campus for the course?
5. Your BTHS high school courses must be taken in consecutive class periods. You may NOT drive to-from-to the BTHS campus to participate in dual enrollment.
6. If you are an athlete or involved in activities that may take you away for meets or events during the week, can you still attend every dual enrollment course session? If no, don't sign up!
7. If students choose to take a dual enrollment course at SJRSC, they will be allowed to modify two BTHS courses for every 1 on campus SJRSC course they take (this also includes online courses).

Unwritten rules of dual enrollment (College Student 101)

- Students are responsible for sharing information regarding dual enrollment with parents.
- Make sure professors know your name & face by introducing yourself after the first class.
- Every course has a published syllabus. Find it. Print it. Follow it.
- Pay attention to the Professors' Office Policies or contact methods.
- Attend every class, be early for class, and stay until the professor dismisses the class – EVERY CLASS – regardless of the attendance policy.
- Pay attention to the SJRSC calendar as it differs from the BTHS calendar.
- Bring your textbook(s), notebook, and something to write with to every class.
- Take notes in your notebook (not your phone) in every class.
