

Announcements for Friday, October 22, 2021

- ❖ Today are underclassmen makeups and retakes for yearbook portraits. Make your way down to the auditorium to make up your photo if you were absent on picture day or come down for the appointment you placed for a retake.
- ❖ There will be a Student United Way meeting on Wednesday, October 27th at 8:45 AM in Room 745. T-Shirt money is required at this time and it is $13 with either cash or card. A beach clean-up will be set for Saturday November 7th and will be discussed at the meeting.
- ❖ Attention Students, BTHS Avid Tutor Mrs. Blake is available for extra Algebra 1, LAM and Geometry help in the back of the Main Media Center / Media Room 3, EVERY Thursday during all three lunches! Students can eat their lunch while getting extra help. Please see your math teacher with any questions.
- ❖ BTHS Theatre Department is presenting Clue on November 4th, 6th, and 7th. Based on the classic board game and the 1985 film, this is a hilarious farce-meets-murder mystery. Join us at Boddy Manor, along with the six mysterious suspects, and have an evening (or afternoon) filled with murder, mystery, and mayhem. Mark your calendars and purchase your tickets today! General Admission: $15.00 ($5.00 off for BT Students/Teachers using the PROMO CODE: CLUE4BEARS). For show times and ticket information, please scan the QR codes around campus.
- ❖ The Tri-M Music Honor Society membership list for this year has been posted on the chorus and band room doors. Our first meeting will be on Wednesday, October 27th after school in the chorus room. We will elect officers and set the meeting schedule for the year. Please see Ms. Mattingly with any questions.
