Students the HUGS club needs your help. Did you know that right here in St. Johns County, roughly 800 students are considered homeless, and thousands more are living at or below the poverty line. Every day, these children attend school with empty stomachs...or shoes that don't fit...or worn clothing. Students do not have books to read at home, or funds for field trips, or access to mentors. From Ponte Vedra Beach to Nocatee, from Julington Creek to Fruit Cove, from St. Augustine to Hastings, thousands of our youngest neighbors have basic, unmet needs. Please come to the HUGS club meeting tomorrow in room 650 from 8:45 to 9:20 to help and learn more and also check with you parents email and social media for more information.
