

Announcements 4/23/24

Are you in need of community service hours and looking for a unique opportunity? This Saturday, Ring Power and the St. Johns County Sheriffs Office are hosting a K9 United Race and are looking for assistance with managing the race. See Deputy Wright for further details.

If you're interested in joining The Bartram Dance Team, they are hosting a clinic on May 14th & 15th, with tryouts on May 16th. Details are provided on the Athletics page of the BTHS website under Dance. Good Luck!

Mr. Bartram will be going on next week during all 3 lunches. The money contestants collect will go to the Ronald McDonald Foundation to help families and children in need. The contestant that raises the most money will be Crowned Mr. Bartram at the end of next week.

It is that time of year again! Senior Women Vs Juniors Ladies Powderpuff game is next week! Come to the stadium Thursday May 2nd at 6pm to see the Juniors face the Seniors. Bring a canned food item for entry to the game.

The Fashion Academy's Annual Fashion Show (RED CARPET THEME) is Next Friday May 3rd from 6:30 p.m.– 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $10.00 and can be purchased by scanning the QR code that is posted on the door on the Fashion Academy, Room 300, Next to the Main Cafeteria.

The Bartram Goes Green Club is celebrating Earth Week with tons of activities this week! Today, stay after school for a sweet treat and help us clean up the campus! Participants will earn service hours and popsicles! Can't make it? Join us tomorrow during all 3 lunches for rock painting.

Are you stressed about the upcoming exam season? The Hispanic Honor Society will be in the courtyard during all three lunches during the week of April 22nd – 26th teaching about the history of the Guatemalan “worry doll”. All students are welcome to come by, learn about this tradition, and make their own “worry doll”, free of charge. Please stop by to relax, be crafty, and learn about Guatemalan culture with us!
