

Announcements 9/4/2025

Want to get service hours? Help make homecoming decorations! Every morning, 9/8-9/12 from 8:45-9:15am in room 200 you can help make decorations for the hoco dance and get hours! Everyone is welcome! Permission forms in room 200, see Mrs. Tax with questions.

Seniors, parking spot painting is scheduled for Friday, September 19th. The deadline for submitting your design and payment is September 10th. Don't miss out! See the Senior Class Page or any Senior Class Officer for more details!

To audition... or not to audition? That is the question!

Hey there, Bears! Are you destined for the stage? Then now's your moment! This fall, we're casting TWO amazing plays that need stars just like you! First: a hilarious, rhyming twist on the classic tale of Romeo and Juliet, Dr. Seuss-style! Expect laughs, love, and lyrical lunacy. Second: a powerful, emotional drama that dives into the real-life challenges of being a teenager. If you've got a serious side, this one's for you. Auditions are happening September 8th and 9th, so don't miss your shot at the spotlight. Need more info? Head to Room 228 and write your name on the sign up sheet.

See you on stage!

Freshman this one's for you. On Friday meet at the solar panels by the gym bc there is a freshman tailgate from 4:30-6:30 come and enjoy a sweet frozen Rita's treat. No way there's Rita's?? Yah and there's more. There will also be lawn games and a spirit wear competition...the prize is free admission to the game also just a reminder not to bring backpacks. There's also boys soccer conditioning Wednesday from 3:15-4:30 and also on Friday from 4:15-5:30. Remember to check out bt athletic leadership on Instagram for the football chants. Show up and bring your school spirit for the usa theme in the student section
