

Announcements 11/5/2025

Good Morning bears! And happy wednesday

Now lets get into sports

Today we have girls weightlifting at pedro menendez against nease

We also have boys soccer at ridgeview jv is at 5:30 and varsity is at 7:20

Swim and dive have their regionals today in Tallahassee at the morcom aquatic center

Good luck to all our sports today!

And huge shoutout to our Cross Country teams — both boys and girls placed 3rd and are headed to Regionals! Plus, special congrats to Bryce Motichka, our district champ, and Avery Hartley, runner-up!

Representatives from the University of Alabama and Val-da-sta State University will be in the courtyard today during all 3 lunches. Stop by to see what these schools have to offer you

Junior ladies is hosting their spirit night at metro diner. So Mark your calendars for November 10th from 5:30-7:30 PM. Come out to order food and hang out

Beta club has their first annual thanksgiving food drive until the 17th. This is in room 720 and for every item you bring you earn one service hour

The social studies department is hosting a food drive until November 14th. All donations can be dropped off in Mrs. Brauns class room 625. The most needed items are canned goods, non-perishables, diapers, baby formula, and pet food Bartram Trail Theatre presents The Night of One Acts — tonorrow through Saturday! Two awesome shows, one night, tons of fun. Tickets are $10 online or $15 at the door — grab them now on Instagram before they sell out!

And don't forget — their Spirit Night is this Saturday at Jersey Mike's in Rivertown from 4 to 7 PM. You can order in person or online so stop by, grab a sub, and help support the theatre program!