Bartram Leadership Council is a class at Bartram taught by Ms. Williams. The class requires you to be an upstanding student of character at Bartram and within the community. She will teach you different leadership strategies and self reflection to help you build your leadership skills. She tests your skills by helping you implement different activities around school.

From student section initiatives, murals, tailgates, lunch activities, student VS faculty games, halftime give aways, and more. The focus is on teamwork and having fun while becoming a team! If this sounds interesting...Fill out a form on their instagram

Current freshman students if you're interested in applying for an academy, the Academy lottery opened yesterday and will close January 26th at 5 PM. You will need to log onto your student hack account to apply for an academy before the deadline...

current freshman academy students do not need to reapply for an academy unless you want to change an academy that you're currently in.
